Belief Growing Dividend on Steel Common Will Not Be Passed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2 .- The stock market opened moderately higher all around, but free from sensational advances. The maximum was % in Brook lyn Rapid Transit. Louisville and Nashville and Union Pacific rose 1/2. Many issues opened unchanged, and fully one-third of the active list rose 14. Steel fives sold up 14, but reacted nominally on sales of half dozen blocks of 25,000 to 250,000. Metropolitan Street Railway rose %; Pressed Steel, 1 per cent. Air Brake rose 1 per cent. After ten minutes the market held steady on the advance. Sugar and Wabash preferred were conspicuous for further rallies.

The announcement of temporary em barassment of important Southern bankers had comparatively little effect upor the market. It may have been responsi ble for preventing development of extreme buoyancy, but nevertheless the market exhibited satisfactory strengt and made general improvements in the early trading. A litle later profit-taking led to setbacks in some directions. St Paul, after advancing %, lost 1 per cent but was steady at the reaction. Baltimore and Ohio receded 1 per cent from its highest. Pennsylvania and Louis ville and Nashville were barely steady Support was extended to New York Central, but it also shaded from the high

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.-There was an active opening and a lower price level notices impelled most of the selling. On the cables alone the start was lower WASHINGTON STOCK MARKET than due. October naturally suffered most, breaking 15 points at the opening, against 10 to 12 points decline in other positions. In addition to considerable liquidation, the bear interest acted ag-gressively under the inspiration of prospective liberal receipts today. After the call the declining tendencies continued in all options, so that by 10:15 o'clock the list was down 13 to 18 points from last night, led by October.
